Ten Famous Worcester Firsts

- 1. The “first American Revolution” took place in 1774, when 4,622 people from Worcester and the surrounding rural towns of Central Mass. gathered and peacefully seized control of the government, ending Royal authority in Central Mass. for good.
- 2. The first public reading of the Declaration of Independence occurred here in 1776 by Isaiah Thomas, who also published the Massachusetts Spy, the first official paper to publish the document.
- 3. The monkey wrench was invented in Worcester by Loring and Aury Coes in 1840.
- 4. Worcester held the first National Women’s Rights Conventions in 1850 and 1851, with Susan B. Anthony among the attendees.
- 5. Marshall “Major” Taylor was deemed the “Fastest Bicyclist in the World” here at the turn of the century. Marshall Taylor was also among the first Black athletes to encounter contention with race relations in professional sports.
- 6. The first mass produced Valentines were created here by Esther Howland, who enjoyed imported Valentines from Europe and began crafting her own to eventually found “The New England Valentine Company.”
- 7. The first American Nobel Prize Winner, Albert A. Michelson of Clark University’s Physics Department, won in 1902 for his measurement of light.
- 8. The first liquid fuel rocket launch took place in Auburn in 1926 by Worcester Professor Robert Goddard, who later worked in Roswell, New Mexico, for the U.S. Government.
- 9. The classic smiley face originated in Worcester in 1964 at “The America Group Insurance Company,” created by local graphic designer Harvey Ball.
- 10. Thu Nguyen became the first non-binary person elected in Massachusetts in 2021 and presently serves on the Worcester City Council.

BLUE SPACES

LAKES

Lake Quinsigamond D and Webster Lake H are two of the most notable to grace Central Mass., the former known as an internationally recognized regatta course with accompanying picnic area and tennis courts, and the latter as a tranquil natural asset for swimming, boating and kayaking. When you visit Webster Lake, also known as Lake Chargoggagoggman-chaggagoggchaubunagungamaugg, stop by Rose Room Cafe for a sweet treat

Stay and play at Indian Ranch, the well known concert and campground venue on Webster Lake. Boat rides on a historic paddlewheel boat, the “Indian Princess,” allow you to cruise along in a replica of the riverboats from the Mississippi River in the late 19th century. For more boating and swimming adventures, check out Mendon Town Beach, or state park areas such as Rutland State Park G, and Wallum Lake at Douglas State Forest F.

RESERVOIRS

Although no swimming is allowed in Wachusett Reservoir or Quabbin Reservoir A, their beauty is appealing enough to get you there. Wachusett Reservoir and Reservation Trail is a 1.4 mile moderately trafficked loop trail located near Boylston, that features beautiful wildflowers and is primarily used for hiking, walking, nature trips and birding. With a picnic area and boat rentals, the Quabbin Reservoir is another worthwhile stop in your warm weather journeys.

RIVERS

The Blackstone River Valley E in Whitinsville is not only a site for bike paths, kayaking and nature walks; it’s also bustling with history—known as the birthplace of the American Industrial Revolution.

SPLASH PARKS

Worcester recently invested substantial efforts into its parks, playgrounds, pools and beaches, which is gloriously spotlighted at the spray park at Cristoforo Colombo/East Park B. It’s a perfect place to take the kiddos, open each day at noon during the summer months.

A family-owned spot in the heart of Douglas, Breezy Picnic Grounds C also cater to families for splash-time fun. Pack your lunch or head to the snack bar whenever you need to refuel.

GREEN SPACES IN CENTRAL MA

Here's a shortlist of exploration ideas to get your journey started:

WALKS

Mass Audubon's Broad Meadow Brook Conservation Center and Wildlife Sanctuary

Mass Audubon's Broad Meadow Brook A offers heavily wooded routes, wide open fields, trickling streams and lush marshland for nature lovers, right within city limits.

Douglas State Forest

See a rare example of an Atlantic White Cedar swampland on this boardwalk trail through Douglas State Forest C. Pack your swimsuit and a picnic to enjoy the full amenities of this state park. Make it a long trek by embarking on the Midstate Trail, which passes through.

Purgatory Chasm State Reservation

Experience a unique natural landmark with a walk (or a climb!) through Purgatory Chasm B, which runs a quarter mile between granite walls, rising as high as 70 feet.

HIKES

The Cascades Trail System

The Cascades, named after its brooks and waterfalls, is a 156-acre conservation in Worcester, including an extensive system of wooded trails, where you can view native wildflowers and traverse the steep hills.

Leadmine Trails

The 880-acre Leadmine Mountain Conservation Area D in Sturbridge, MA is a destination for hiking, mountain biking, horseback riding, wildlife viewing, hunting and fishing. Arbutus Park Trail is an easy route for your first visit.

Lookout Rock

Take a hike up to Lookout Rock E in Northbridge, MA, where the views are worth revisiting at least once a season, as the dramatic landscape offers both bold and subtle changes of expansive beauty.

Mass Audubon Wachusett Meadow Wildlife Sanctuary & Wachusett Mountain

Find year-round fun at this 2,006-foot summit. First timers will enjoy 1.5 miles on the Echo Lake Trail, take a steep 1-mile hike on Pine Hill Trail to the summit, or find Balance Rock F!

DISCOVER THE TOWNS OF CENTRAL MA

395 CORRIDOR

Auburn

Auburn is a vibrant community, combining New England charm with the convenience of an excellent transportation network and robust commercial and industrial base.

Dudley

The Town of Dudley lies between the French and Quinebaug Rivers, just north of the Connecticut border. You'll find Nichols College and the Quinebaug River Valley Rail Trail, among other attractions.

Oxford

Oxford offers opportunities aplenty to bask in the New England landscape, like hiking, biking, horseback riding and cross country skiing along the French River and Hodges Village Dam.

Webster

Webster's richest asset is the fresh-water Lake Chargoggagoggmanchaugagoggchaubunagungamaugg, which you can enjoy while riding the Indian Princess A.

BLACKSTONE VALLEY

Blackstone

Historical remnants of a once booming industrial era line the Blackstone River, which winds through the rural town of Blackstone.

Douglas

With over 5,000 acres of recreational land, including a 300 acre lake, there is no shortage of outdoor fun to be found in Douglas.

Grafton

A rich Native American history is woven through the semi-rural town of Grafton, home of the Hassanamisco Indian Museum and Reservation.

Mendon

The waters of Lake Nipmuc run through Mendon, along with lakeside dining, the largest zoo in New England and the nostalgic Mendon Twin Drive-In.

Millbury

The Blackstone River flows through Millbury, a town rich in history with icons like the Asa Waters Mansion B, a historic event venue.

Millville

A small town on the Rhode Island border, Millville boasts several scenic spots as well as some deep historic roots and buildings.

Northbridge

Northbridge represents America's story with an active agricultural landscape still producing vegetables, fruits and dairy products, yet it's filled with mills and mill villages directly connecting it to America's journey towards industrialization.

Sutton

With a town common seemingly out of a Norman Rockwell painting, Sutton has maintained commitment to conserving both nature and history. You won't want to miss a hike through the geologic preserve, Purgatory Chasm State Reservation.

Upton

Upton is a residential community with a proud history of farming and straw hat manufacturing.

Uxbridge

Uxbridge is home to the Nation's first woman voter and in addition to antiques and the Blackstone River, you'll find farm to table excellence at UxLocale.

Whitinsville

Just southeast of Purgatory Chasm, Whitinsville is an unincorporated village within the town of Northbridge with a charming small business scene on Church St.

STURBRIDGE TOWNSHIPS

Brookfield

The town of Brookfield has evolved from rural farmlands to the home of several industries, yet still maintains its natural scenery at hidden gems.

Charlton

Recognized as one of the safest towns in Massachusetts, Charlton boasts a rural landscape that's especially fun to offroad on at 508 International.

East Brookfield

Follow Route 9 long enough and you'll reach East Brookfield, home to attractions like Lake Lashaway and Timberyard Brewing Company.

Hardwick

Agriculture has been, and still remains, the root of Hardwick C—a town in the Quabbin–Swift River Valley, and home to the popular Hardwick Vineyard and Winery.

North Brookfield

North Brookfield’s residents are proud of its historical ties that include having sent 150 Minutemen to the Battle of Lexington & Concord and is also home to family-friendly Brookfield Orchards.

New Braintree

Known for its farms and bountiful harvests, New Braintree is a Right to Farm Community, with eight working dairy farms, a commercial orchard and several prosperous produce farms.

Southbridge

Often referred to as “The Eye of the Commonwealth” for its profound optical manufacturing past, Southbridge is a town rich in history, architecture and culture.

Spencer

Spencer has become a coveted destination for visitors, home to the Spencer Fair grounds and St. Joseph’s Abbey, which houses a community of Trappist monks who make jams and brews.

Sturbridge

With colonial roots and peppered with modern amenities, Sturbridge D dawns grassy commons, antique shops and boutiques, orchards, wooded trails and quaint bed and breakfasts.

W. Brookfield

West Brookfield is a quintessential New England town nestled among the Quabog hills about halfway between Springfield and Worcester.

Warren

Warren is one of six existing towns that were first settled in 1660 and are known as the Quabog Plantation.

WACHUSETT

Berlin

Berlin, a small town at the northeast edge of the region, is a popular destination for equestrian events at local farms.

Boylston

With a population of about 4,000, Boylston, Massachusetts is a small town with some big attractions, like Tower Hill Botanic Garden E.

Holden

Holden has transitioned from its rural farming roots into a highly sought after, family-friendly community, with attractions like the Farm at SummitWynds.

Oakham

Rich with wildlife, ponds, streams and conservation land, the nature of Oakham is just a quick drive from Worcester.

Paxton

Home to the historic and beautiful Moore State Park, Paxton is a popular destination for New England visitors and locals alike.

Rutland

Rutland is home to an expansive State Park, including Whitehall Pond, that offers days of outdoor exploration.

West Boylston

West Boylston’s Old Stone Church and nearby antique shops are two good reasons to visit this northern suburb of Worcester.

WORCESTER

Worcester

Located in the Heart of the Commonwealth, Worcester F is New England’s second largest city, marrying the historic charm of a small town with the conveniences and attractions of a thriving metropolis.

Leicester

West of Worcester Airport you’ll find Leicester, a rural historical town with some unique attractions, like a drive-in theatre and a “secret” Quaker cemetery.

Shrewsbury

To the East of the city’s edge, Lake Quinsigamond brings many to one of the country’s premier rowing venues. The convenience of shopping on Route 9 also attracts many.
